

Raw Sewage Pump Replacement Project Speedway Wastewater Treatment Plant

A project to replace the raw sewage pumps at the wastewater treatment plant is now complete. The total cost for this project was $291,000.

The old pumps were twenty years old and had become unreliable and inefficient. The addition of these new state of the art pumps are more energy efficient and will eliminate costly downtimes.

